T.I. Director

Dear Students:

Congratulations on a job well done. You have successfully completed a rigorous program and should be extremely proud of your accomplishments. You accomplished this while continuing outside employment, caring for your families and maintaining your own personal life. The faculty and I are impressed with the commitment you made, and what a difficult task this has been.

As you leave Southeastern and enter your chosen career I am confident that the skills and confidence you have gained will enable you to reach your personal goals. Stay close to the friends you have made here, continue to learn, challenge yourself and follow your dreams. I have great faith in all of you.

Best wishes for a happy, productive future.

Sincerely,

Pamelia S. Barry, Director

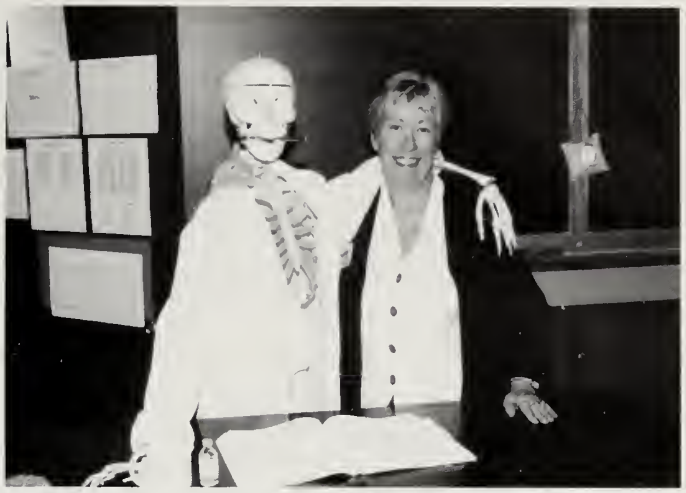
Proper instruction and use of axillary cruthes.

"Have you had anything hot or cold to drink in the last 15 minutes?"

Babies are so much fun!

Look deeply into my eyes!

Kelley, Do you have any skeletons in your closet?



Mrs. Ward and her former lab assistant!

This won't hurt a bit!

Always lock up the medicine cabinet!

Danielle would make a super mom!

Mrs. Germoni, here I come!

Going for a ride!

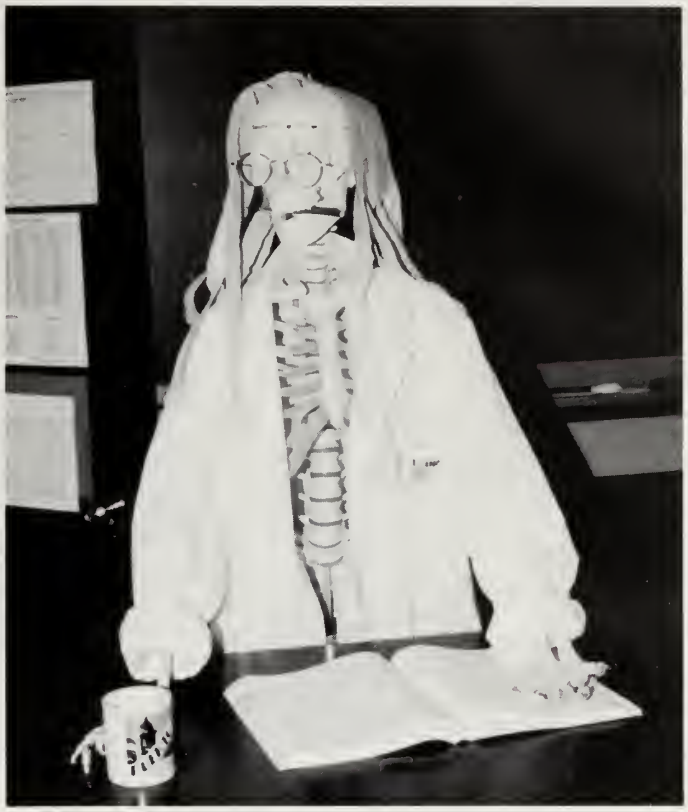
Remember 3 minutes for each arm!

Always remember to smile!

Let me take a look!

MA class officers!

A pretty face . . .



Okay class, listen up!

Why is Kelley so happy?

Feeling for a brachial pulse!

MA Class Will

The MA Class leaves to the following:

"No pressure" to Mrs. Germoni
Amy D. and Kendall leave Faith with a big "EEEH" before her tests.
We all leave Julie with "What do I say?"
Amy D. leaves Kendall running to the car.
We leave "Little Bit" being Beary Special
Amy D., Faith, Kendall and Donna leave Julie with a "Ducky Day"
Faith leaves Mr. Worden a calculator and one page of notes.

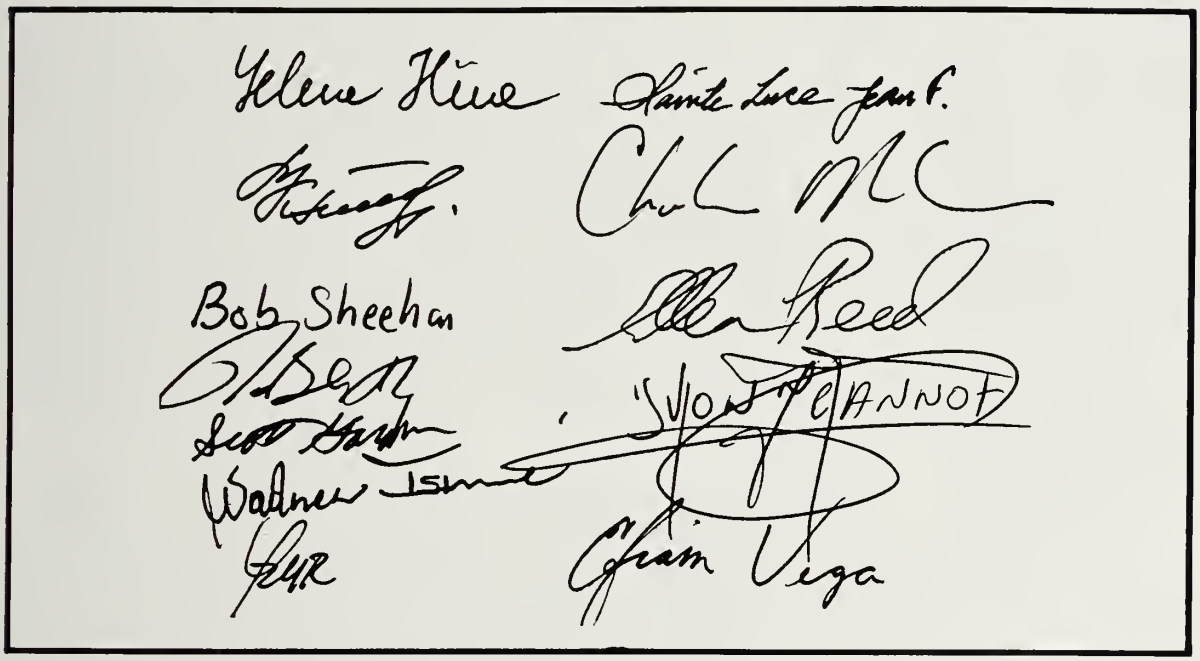
Mrs. Churchill, thank you for all your help.
Mr. Worden, smallest to largest, 3 places to the left, largest to smallest, 3 places to the right!
Mrs. Germoni, thank you for making learning fun. I'll miss you. Kelley S.
Amy will leave wondering who will be there to do a B.C. for Kendall?
Remember when the bird flew into the window?
Hey Faith, don't fall off any more examining tables, will ya?!
Mr. Worden, who will be there to leave you candies anymore? Kelley S.
Kelley S. will leave with a lot of fond memories of all her new friends and wishes everyone success.
Remember, RED pen for ALLERGIES!
Remember when we got the wrong tests by mistake? we still love you though!
Thank God no more A & P tests!

Computer Programming

Seated L-R: Mrs. Porter, Instructor, Yvon Jeannot, Eugene Kletsov, Charles Marlue, Jean Sainte-Luce, Frank Vega. Standing L-R: Augustine Norris, Rony Paul, Robert Sheehan, Scott Gardner, Wadner Isme, Ellen Reed, Yelina Ilina.



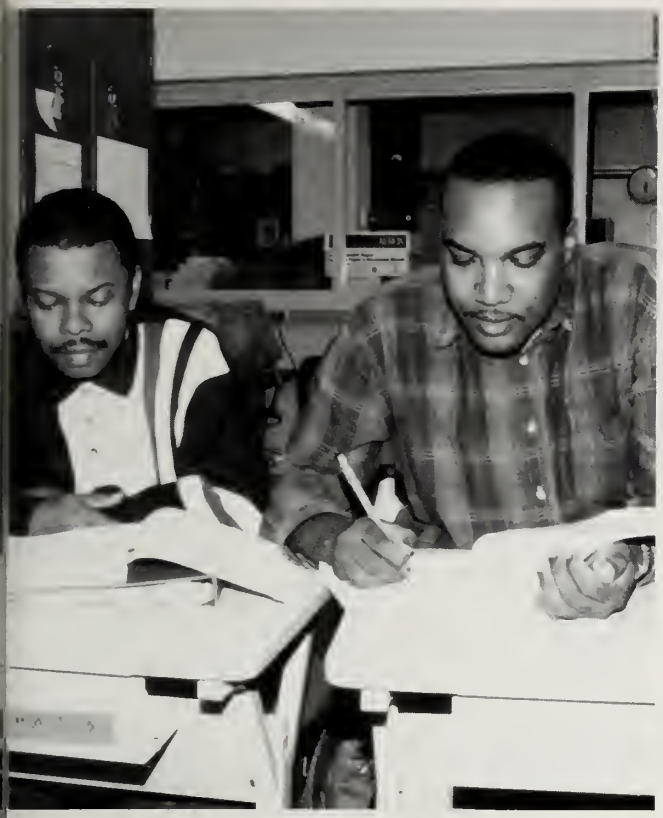
Programmer have fun too.

Call on Mrs. Porter.

Huh! A translator program will be useful.

Computer GEEKS.

I rather have COBOL than soda.



COBOL will do this to you.

Do it to yourself Wadner.

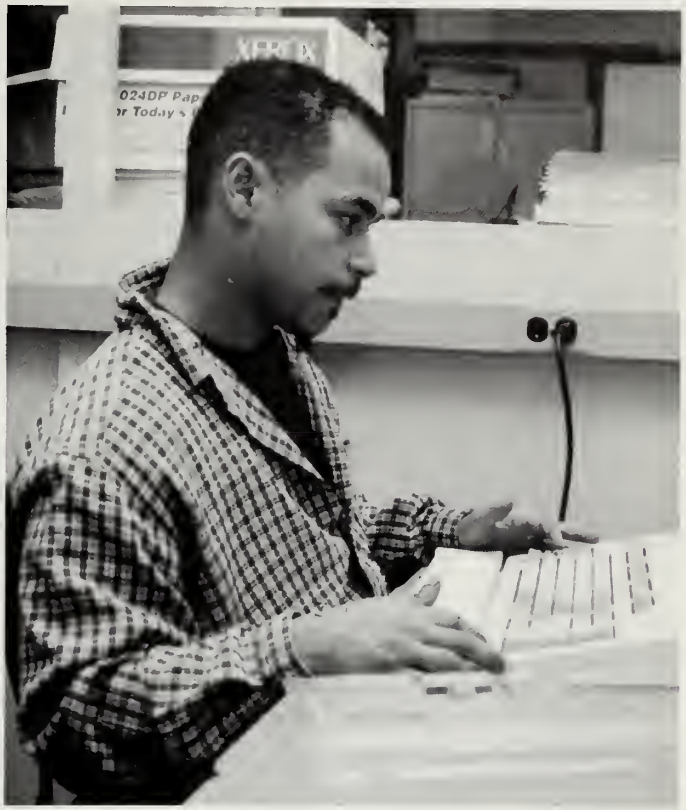
Smile Guys! Wake up Frankie.

Label disk properly next time.

Clueless Guy.

Seeing thru the computer eyes.

A dagger for all who don't send $10.00 a week.



I wish I was here yesterday.

Cannot figure this out.

Easy as cracking an egg.

CP Class Will

The CP Class leaves to the following:

Franky to the next class: one dozen hangers for the empty coat rack.

Yelena Ilina to the next class: don't spend your break time for the smoking, read a book and pay attention.

Rony Paul to the next class: make an effort to dream on the way to improve your ability in what you believe you can do, and you'll accomplish it when you believe you can.

Ellen Reed to the next class: my "Technical Institute, no assigned parking number" faded red 8" x 11" sign.

Yvon to the next class: knowledge is a powerful tool. You must try your best to achieve it, remember it's only good if you pass it around.

Charles: I recommend that Jean and Rony will their lunch bags to the next class who have limited time and like to eat lunch at school. I would also like to name our electric pencils sharpener WADNER from here on.

Eugene Kletsov to the next class: CD COBOL and manual for practice.

Wadner: Mrs. Porter always telling me to pay attention on what she's talking about in the class.

Bob Sheehan: my spare desks to all the unlikely victims of the Computer Programming course.

Jean: I never want to miss one day of class, because there is too much information to learn everyday.

Computerized Office Technology
